

KLE Society's College of Business Administration - Seminar and Workshops conducted in 2017

1. Workshop on “Travel and Tourism” conducted on 8th September, 2017

Students were trained on Air Cargo Management Services and the career opportunities in this field by Mr. K. M. Unnikrishnan. Mr. R. Patric Andrews Raj discussed various IATA Certifications and the job opportunities. Mr. Amlan Bhattacharya discussed various types of tourism and career opportunities with Global Tour Operators and also business opportunities as Travel Agencies and Tour Operators. (TAs and TOs)

2. Workshop on “Training and Development” conducted on 9th September, 2017

Mr. Amit Soundalgekar Life Coach & Corporate Trainer deliberated a sessions on different types of Career Opportunities available to the Graduates in the Training and Development Area, also the skill sets and certifications that are required for pursuing the career in the respective field.

3. Workshop on “NGO Management” conducted on 16th September, 2017.

The workshop on NGO sector was taken by Mahesh Dodammani and Amarnath T. which provided the students detail knowledge about the working of NGO sector, how to identify what the society lacks, significance of NGOs, the legal procedures an NGO needs to undergo before setting up.

4. Workshop on “Training and Development” conducted on 7th October, 2017

Workshop was conducted by Mr. R. S. Prasad VP – HR Citicorp Services India Pvt. Ltd. Pune covering the topics Training Need Analysis, Designing of Training Program, appropriate Training Methods according to the training design and brief information to the participants about the Career Opportunities for the Graduates in Training and Development Area.

5. Workshop and Training on “Public Speaking Mastery” conducted on 9th, 10th, 24th and 25th October, 2017.

Public Speaking Mastery Course was delivered by Mr. Rahul Bhatnagar, famous Public speaker. The workshop covered following topics Public Speaking, Overcoming the doubts, challenges and apprehensions, Empathy & Gratitude, Impromptu Speaking, Group Discussion, Group Debate, Group Discussions, Mastering Personal Interviews, Written Communication and Life Skills. Also total 164 students from I and III semester were enrolled to the online certification program of public speaking mastery cleared the certification.

6. Workshop on “Stress Management” conducted on 8th November, 2017

Stress Management workshop was organized for first year students on 8th November, 2018. The resource person Prof. Sanjay Deshpande from IMER spoke on how stress leads to various personality disorders and how to overcome those disorders. Also he gave certain tips to students to practice some habits on day to day basis which will reduce their stress levels.

