

KLE Society's College of Business Administration – Seminar and Workshops conducted in 2015

1. A seminar on Case Analysis in Entrepreneurship Development was organized for final year students on 22nd August, 2015. The resource person for this workshop was Prof. Surjaybrat B. from IBS Bengaluru.

Workshop: Analysis in Entrepreneurship Development

Resource Person: Prof. Surjaybrat B. from IBS Bengaluru.

2. One day workshop was organized for First Year students on Public Speaking and Presentation Skills by Shri. Vinay Bailur on 4th September, 2015.

Students learnt skills required for communication on stage with activity based workshop. The workshop also elaborated on how to manage the stage fright.

3. Two-day workshop was organized for IBPS and other competitive Examination:

Our College has organized two day training workshop for IBPS and other competitive Examination on 4th and 5th September, 2015. Shri. R. K. Balachandra, Director, Corporation Bank Self Employment Training Institute, Chikmagalur, who has more than 25 years of experience in training the students for Bank Clerical and Officers exam, KPSC, MBA entrance and other competitive examination was the resource person for the workshop. All the students of final year attended and got benefited from this workshop.

WorkShop: IBPS and other competitive Examination

Resource Person: Shri. R. K. Balachandra, Director, Corporation Bank Self Employment Training Institute, Chikmagalur

4. Personality Development Training Programme held at KLES's CBALC. Personality Development Training Programme was conducted by Col Kirpal Singh at KLE Society's College of Business Administration, Belagavi on 30th September 2015. Col.Kirpal Singh mainly spoke on the theme Personality. He started the training programme with the note "Personality is a key determinant of success and failure in life. Contribution of all the leaders put together equals the growth and development of our world in all times" .Col.Kirpal Singh Group Commander NCC, Belagavi, trained the students on the Psycho-Social improvements and leadership skills. While speaking about the leadership qualities he said that interpersonal skills, awareness and application of current affairs in the day to day life and business, controlling aggression and having the friend circle of various age groups from different walks of life as the key tools of success. He also guided the faculties on bringing out the leaders in students. Principal Prof.P.R.Kadakol welcomed the guest. Mr.S. Sunil proposed Vote of thanks. Ms.RuchikaKumari Singh hosted the ceremony. Around 200 students and Faculty members were present for the training.

Workshop: Personality Development Training Programme

Resource Person: Col. Kirpal Singh